1.) Introduction

We protect your personal data in line with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The GDPR requires data controllers such as ourselves to document our lawful basis for processing personal data. It also gives you rights over how your data is processed. This privacy policy documents the data we collect, why and how we process it, and how to exercise your rights.

2). Data Controller

The data controller responsible for this website is JD Virtual LTD, registered company number: 13913750 who can be contacted at Grafton Cottage, Prieford, Barnstaple, Devon, EX31 4DX.

farakunku.com contains links to other websites.

This privacy policy only applies to farakunku.com and does not cover other services and transactions that we link to. These services have their own terms and conditions and privacy policies.

If you visit another website from ours, ensure you read their privacy policy to find out how they process your information

If you visit farakunku.com from another website, we may receive information from the other website. We do not use this data. You should read the privacy policy of the website you came from to find out more about this.

If you want to request more information about our privacy policy or information regarding data protection you can contact us using the details provided at the end of this document.

3). Lawful Basis for Processing

For each method by which we collect personal data, this privacy policy documents our lawful basis for processing the data. Where we rely on your consent to process your data, we explain how you can withdraw your consent and delete your data.

If you are an existing contact or customer, we will only contact you by postal and electronic means (e-mail) with information about services or goods which you have previously purchased from us or enquired about. If you are a new customer, and where we permit selected third parties to use your data, we (or they) will contact you by post or electronic means only if you have consented to this. You can choose to not receive these types of communication by contacting us.

Why do we need to collect and process your data?

We use data to analyse how clients and consumers interact with our website so that we can improve both the site and our services. This is known as pursuance of legitimate interests and allows us to lawfully collect data and monitor the performance of our contracts. We use your personal data to send you more information about our web design services as requested.

For information, these are the categories of lawful bases for processing:

- Consent: the individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose.
- Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering a contract.
- Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for you to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations).
- Vital interests: the processing is necessary to protect someone's life.
- Public task: the processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.
- Legitimate interests: the processing is necessary for your legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party, unless there is a good reason to protect the individual's personal data which overrides those legitimate interests. (This cannot apply if you are a public authority processing data to perform your official tasks.)

4). Disclosures

In addition to any sharing of data described elsewhere in this privacy policy, we may disclose data for legal reasons. If we suspect criminal activity, we may disclose data relating to those involved or affected to the appropriate authorities. We may also be obliged to disclose data if we receive a request from an appropriate authority.

5). Security

The GDPR requires us to implement appropriate technical measures to protect data. We verify the identity of any individual who requests access to data before granting access. We use Transport Layer Security (TLS, also known as SSL) to encrypt any data you supply to us through our website. Additional technical measures are described at the relevant points in this privacy policy.

6). Data Storage

We store your data on secure servers in the European Economic Area (EEA). Some of our suppliers are based outside the EEA (European Economic Area). System Data may be transferred, shared, and processed within our group and to and by these third parties. This may involve the storage, transfer, and processing of this information outside the EEA or the country where you or a user is located. Where this happens, we will ensure that any such transfer or processing is subject to appropriate legal and technical safeguards.

7). Retention Policy

We will process personal data during the duration of any contract and will continue to store only the personal data needed for five years after the contract has expired to meet any legal obligations. After five years any personal data not needed will be deleted.

8). Data Collection Rights

Your rights as a data subject. At any point whilst Farakunku Lodges (a client of JD Virtual Ltd) is in possession of or processing your personal data, all data subjects have the following rights:

- Right of access – you have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you.
- Right of rectification – you have a right to correct data that we hold about you that is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Right to be forgotten – in certain circumstances you can ask for the data we hold about you to be erased from our records.
- Right to restriction of processing – where certain conditions apply you have a right to restrict the processing.
- Right of portability – you have the right to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation.
- Right to object – you have the right to object to certain types of processing such as direct marketing.
- Right to object to automated processing, including profiling – you also have the right not to be subject to the legal effects of automated processing or profiling.

If Farakunku Lodges (a client of JD Virtual Ltd) refuses your request under rights of access, we will provide you with a reason as to why, which you have the right to legally challenge.

Farakunku Lodges (a client of JD Virtual Ltd) at your request can confirm what information it holds about you and how it is processed

9). Cookies

Cookies are small pieces of code that are stored by your browser. Each cookie has a name and is associated with a particular site. When your browser sends a request to a site (for example, to download a page, image, or video), the computer that responds (known as a server) may tell your browser to set one or more cookies. When your browser makes further requests to the same site it sends the cookies back to the server. This allows the server to remember you as you browse the site and provide features such as shopping baskets or password-protected areas.
